

Nurse's appointment in the field of rehabilitation (lifestyle consultation)

The provision of outpatient nursing care in the field of rehabilitation (lifestyle consultation), which encompasses, above all, patient instruction and counselling on how to cope with their illness and changes resulting from the illness, and also a healthy diet, physical exercise and healthy lifestyle choices.

Inpatient referral by a specialist is required for you visit.