

3D endoscopic/laparoscopic radical prostatectomy

The advantage of this method is better visualization during surgery through the use of multiple magnification, smaller scars, less pain after surgery, and the faster activation and recovery of the patient.

Magnification and 3D technology enable better manipulation of tissues as well as faster operations, and are the best method for the preservation of nerves, which ensures the patient a higher post-operative quality of life.