

Health certificate for teachers, employees of child care institutions and other employees who, due to their duties, are in direct contact with children and adolescents

A health inspection is required to certify the health status of a person and its compatibility for working on the relevant specialty