

Health certificate for employees engaged in the provision of beauty treatments and personal services who are in direct contact with customers

A health inspection is required to certify the health status of a person and its compatibility for working on the relevant specialty