

Appointment with a dermatovenerology nurse

A dermatovenerology nurse provides consultations to patients with skin disorders.

The nurse will give recommendations regarding skin care in the case of chronic skin disorders and acne, or after the treatment of fungal infections.

The treating physician will refer you to a nurse's appointment.